Any new application for membership shall be submitted to existing members for approval.

Article 7:

- A: Organisations representative of the profession in countries, which are members of the European Free Trade Association, may apply for full membership.
- B: Organisations representative of the profession in European countries, which are not members of the European Union, may apply for observer membership.
- C: Such Observer members will pay an annual subscription as determined by the General Assembly.
- D: Observer members are not entitled to vote; they will be invited on a regular basis to attend all statutory meetings.

Article 8:

The General Assembly of CPLoL shall have the overriding right of decision on the admission of member organisations. The decision shall be made by a two-thirds majority of those present, and shall be based on the following criteria:

- representativeness
- ability to meet the aims and objectives of CPLoL
- particular specialism
- any other criterion relevant to CPLoL
- quality of training

Likewise, if an organisation does not comply with the above criteria, the General Assembly of CPLoL may resolve to exclude it, based on a two-thirds majority vote of those present.

Article 9:

In the event that other states join the EU, an organisation admitted by the General Assembly as a full member shall be added to the above list.

Article 10:

Each country may be represented at the General Assembly by a maximum of two delegates, who must be speech and language therapists - logopedists, appointed by the member organisation or organisations, chosen from amongst their members and duly mandated by them.

Article 11:

In the event that an organisation submits an application for membership to the executive committee of CPLoL, a representative of the organisation may attend meetings of CPLoL as an observer, with a purely consultative role, whilst waiting for this application to be accepted.

SECTION V: ADMINISTRATION

Article 12: The General Assembly

The governing, decision-making and planning body of CPLoL shall be the General Assembly, made up of member organisations.

- A: It shall consist of two delegates per country, these delegates to be speech and language therapists - logopedists, representing the organisation(s) of speech and language therapists - logopedists in each of these countries. Where a country is represented by more than one organisation, the allocation of the two seats shall be decided by the national associations concerned.
- B: Each country from which the office bearer (President, General Secretary, Treasurer) come may co-opt another to ensure representation within each commission. Co-opted representatives may attend the General Assembly, without voting right.
- C: The General Assembly of CPLoL shall meet once every two years, convened by the Executive Committee in accordance with a detailed agenda.
At each General Assembly, the General Secretary shall put the minutes of the previous Assembly to the vote.
- D: In addition to these ordinary meetings, extraordinary meetings may be convened at the request either of the Executive Committee, or by at least one third of member organisations. In this case, the convocation shall follow the same rules as those laid down in the previous paragraph.
- E: The convocation shall be sent to representatives of member organisations at least two months before the date of the meeting fixed by the Executive Committee.

Article 13: Role of the General Assembly

The General Assembly shall lay down the main lines of policy for CPLoL by:

- setting out a programme of action for CPLoL to be followed between ordinary General Assemblies
- setting up commissions and committees as required
- approving the financial accounts for the previous years
- voting on report of the organisation's activities
- electing the Executive Committee of CPLoL
- making alterations to the Statutes where required
- fixing the subscription rate.

Article 14: The Executive Committee

- A: The Executive Committee is the body responsible for carrying out the decisions of the General Assembly. It is also responsible for managing CPLoL between meetings of the General Assembly on the basis of policies laid down. It accounts for its activities to each General Assembly.
- B: Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected by the General Assembly.
- C: Candidates for positions on the Executive Committee shall be submitted by member organisations of CPLoL.
- D: Members of the Executive Committee shall be elected for a period of two years and may be re-elected.
- E: In the event that any member resigns or a post falls vacant, the Executive Committee shall have the right where appropriate to co-opt a replacement to take over responsibility and duties of the vacant post until a vote can be carried out at the next General Assembly.
- F: The Executive Committee shall be constituted as follows:
- One President, who shall represent CPLoL in dealing with all EU authorities
  - One General Secretary, responsible for general administration.
  - One Treasurer, responsible for the finances of CPLoL.
  - Four Vice-Presidents, responsible for the work of the commissions and committees.
- For each of the posts defined above, a maximum of three consecutive terms of office is permitted.
- G: Each candidate for one of the Executive Committee posts must be endorsed by the candidate's own member organisation.
- H: The Executive Committee shall be composed of members from at least six different countries.
- I: The Executive Committee may have recourse to experts for specific purposes and for fixed periods of time which should not exceed the term of office of the E.C.

Article 15:

A quorum of the General Assembly and of the Executive Committee, for the purpose of taking decisions, shall consist of at least half of the constituent members.

Article 16:

All votes shall be taken by show of hands, unless one of the members present expressly requests otherwise.

The General Assembly shall endeavour to obtain the consensus of as large a number of members as possible over issues affecting the profession as a whole.

SECTION VI: ACCOUNTS

Article 17:

The funds of CPLoL shall consist of subscriptions from member organisations, subsidies if granted, resources from CPLoL activities, and sundry gifts or legacies.

Article 18:

Each member organisation of CPLoL shall pay the annual subscription decided by the General Assembly before 31st March; if the subscription has not been paid by this date, the organisation concerned shall be given observer status and shall lose its voting rights. If the subscription has not been paid by 1st September, the organisation shall automatically lose its membership of CPLoL.

Article 19:

The subscription shall be fixed in EUROS in proportion to the number of members of the profession belonging to each organisation.

Article 20:

- (a) The funds shall be paid into a separate bank account opened in the name of CPLoL.
- (b) Two auditors, chosen from two different countries not represented on the Executive Committee, shall ensure that CPLoL's financial affairs are properly managed. The auditors shall report to the ordinary general assemblies. They shall be elected for two years.

Article 21:

All travel and accommodation expenses directly related to CPLoL activities for official delegates and invited experts (re Article 14, 1) shall be met from CPLoL funds. All elected posts, whatever nature, shall be unpaid.

Article 22:

CPLoL shall submit requests for subsidies or financing to the European Authorities as and when required.

SECTION VII: OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

Article 23:

Documents prepared by the Executive Committee shall be drawn up in both English and French.

Article 24:

The President will ensure that oral interjections are translated into the official languages.

Article 25:

After each meeting, minutes shall be sent to the members of CPLoL in both English and French.

SECTION VIII: ALTERATIONS TO STATUTES

Article 26:

The statutes may be altered by any meeting of the General Assembly of CPLoL. However, proposals to alter the statutes shall be sent to member organisations at least three months in advance.

SECTION IX: DISSOLUTION

Article 27:

Should it be decided to dissolve CPLoL for whatever reason, member organisations shall by agreement allocate any assets to one or more of the professional organisations of speech and language therapists - logopedists from EU member countries.
